Dear Mr. Terreni:

I am writing to inform you that my client, Mr. Calhoun Mays, Jr. is not the registered agent for Wyboo Plantation Utilities, Inc. Mr. Mays has been receiving certain pleadings from your office with him designated as the registered agent. I have included the most recent pleading for your information. I have contacted Wyboo Plantation Utilities' counsel and he has confirmed that Mr. Mays is not the registered agent (see enclosed correspondence). As such, I would be most grateful if you could remove Mr. Mays from your service list for this matter.

Please let me know if you have questions. I appreciate your assistance.

With best regards,

Steve:

On February 26 we filed a notice with the Secretary of State changing the registered agent for Wyboo to Mark Wrigley. I assume that the Commission knows that Mark is the appropriate contact person, as the Commission approved Mark Wrigley's purchase of the utility from your client in 2001, Mark has filed the annual reports for Wyboo every year since that time, he filed testimony in the Wyboo rate proceeding indicating that he was the owner and president of Wyboo Plantation Utilities, Inc., etc. I assume this will take care of the problem.

Very best regards,

John

John and Wendy:

My client, Mr. Calhoun Mays, Jr. continues to receive correspondence regarding the Public Service Commission litigation indicating that he is the registered agent for Wyboo Plantation Utilities. John, did you have the opportunity to take the steps to remove Mr. Mays from the various databases (i.e., Secretary of State) as the registered agent of Wyboo Utilities? Thanks for your help.
